

Waldenstrom's Macroglobulinemia Update

We hope you can join us for this informative virtual program!

SPEAKERS:

Steven Treon, MD, PhD
Hematologist/Oncologist
Dana-Farber Cancer Institute

Daren Grosman, MD, PhD
Hematologist/Oncologist
Memorial Cancer Institute

PROGRAM:

Please join LLS and Memorial Cancer Institute for a free virtual education program for patients and their families. Presenters will discuss the latest advances in Waldenstrom's Macroglobulinemia from diagnosis to living with the disease.

Participants will learn about the newest treatment options, signs and symptoms, clinical trials, and managing side effects. The impact of COVID 19 and the vaccine will be discussed. We will also review key questions to discuss with your providers, quality of life and the future of Waldenstrom's treatment.

In addition, participants will learn about the resources available in their community and those provided by The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. We encourage you to invite your caregiver and family members.
